NEW YORK — WE ACT 4 Change (WE ACT), the new political arm of WE ACT for Environmental Justice, today announced its endorsements of Maya Wiley for New York City Mayor and Alvin Bragg for New York County District Attorney. This follows the organization's endorsement of Mark Levine for Manhattan Borough President and Jumaane Williams for Public Advocate as well as New York City Council candidates Shaun Abreu for District 7, Cordell Cleare for District 9, and Carmen De La Rosa for District 10 on June 11, 2021.

WE ACT 4 Change has been conducting candidate forums in partnership with WE ACT for Environmental Justice, and based its endorsements on factors such as the candidate's commitment to and track record on addressing environmental and climate justice issues.

"We are impressed by the quality of the many of the candidates running for office, and I have worked with many of them in various capacities over the years, which made the decisions even more difficult," explained Peggy Shepard, Executive Director of WE ACT 4 Change. "But the candidates we have endorsed understand the disproportionate impact that climate change and other environmental issues have on communities of color, and expressed a commitment to work with us in developing equitable solutions to these challenges. If you seek environmental justice, these are the candidates who can best help achieve that in New York City."

WE ACT 4 Change was formed earlier this year to build and leverage political power in the fight to achieve environmental and climate justice for communities in Northern Manhattan. As a 501(c)(4) nonprofit registered in New York State, WE ACT 4 Change can take direct political action, which is not something WE ACT for Environmental Justice can do as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit. In addition to endorsing political candidates, it is currently conducting voter and civic engagement activities and will also lobby for policies and programs as well as hold elected officials accountable.

“Our community needs an active voice in who gets elected to these positions, to ensure that they are willing to take bold and swift action on these issues. The future of our climate and our community depends on it,” added Shepard.
